Weekdays in Time after Epiphany and Time after Trinity.

If several celebrations fall on the same day, the one that holds the highest rank according to the Table of Liturgical Days is observed. However, a Solemnity impeded by a liturgical day that takes precedence over it should be transferred to the closest day not listed under nos. 1-8 in the Table of Precedence, provided that what is laid down in no. 5 is observed. As to the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord, whenever it falls on any day of Holy Week, it shall always be transferred to the Monday after the Second Sunday of Easter. Other celebrations are omitted in that year.

Should Evening Prayer of the current day's Office and First Evensong (Evening Prayer I) of the following day be assigned for celebration on the same day, then Evening Prayer of the celebration with the higher rank in the Table of Liturgical Days takes precedence; in cases of equal rank, Evening Prayer of the current day takes precedence.

Coll.: ALMIGHTY God, who willest to be glorified in thy Saints, and didst raise up thy servants Martha, Mary, and Lazarus to shine as lights in the world: shine we pray thee, in our hearts; that aided by their prayers we also in our generation may show forth thy praises, who hast called us out of darkness into thy marvellous light; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

P.O.T.O.: WE beseech thee, O Lord, as we proclaim thy wonders in thy saints: and humbly implore thy majesty; that, as their homage of love was pleasing unto thee, so our dutiful service may find favour in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Post.: MAY the holy reception of the Body and Blood of thine Only Begotten Son, O Lord, turn us away from the cares of this fallen world: that, following the example of Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus, we may grow in sincere love for thee on earth, and rejoice to behold thee for eternity in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Septuagesima Eve

A Form for the Ritual Burial of the Alleluia

Following the Third Collect of Evensong at the First Evensong of Septuagesima, the People rise. The Officiant addresses them, and sings the Benedicamus Domino with the double Alleluias to the tone used during Paschaltide.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

V. Let us bless the Lord, alleluia, alleluia.

R. Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia.

V. May the souls of all the Faithful Departed rest in peace.

R. Amen.

The hymn, Alleluia, dulce carmen, is then sung, during which, the board inscribed with the Paschal Alleluia is sprinkled with holy water and then incensed. Either the traditional Sarum Tone or the modern hymn tune, Westminster New, are suitable for the hymn. The meter is 87.87.87.

Alleluia, dulce carmen

ALLELUIA, song of sweetness,
Voice of joy, eternal lay:
Alleluia is the anthem
Of the choirs in heav'nly day,
Which the Angels sing, abiding
In the House of GOD always.

^{2.} Alleluia, thou resoundest,
Salem, Mother ever blest;
Alleluias without ending
Fit yon place of gladsome rest;
Exiles we, by Babel's waters,
Sit in bondage and distress'd.

^{3.} Alleluia, we deserve not
Here to chant for evermore;
Alleluia, our transgressions
Make us for a while give o'er;
For the holy time is coming
Bidding us our sins deplore.

^{4.} TRINITY of endless glory,
Hear thy people as they cry;
Grant us all to keep thy Easter
In our Home beyond the sky,
There to thee our Alleluia
Singing everlastingly. Amen.

During the hymn, the solemn procession is then formed, with thurifer, cross, and torch bearers. Coming to the Altar steps, and facing the Altar, all bow their heads at the beginning of the Fourth Verse of the hymn: "TRINITY of endless glory." The Cantor intones the Antiphon, "In Paradisum."

Ant. Into Paradise *

The Officiant carries the Paschal Alleluia to the place of burial, as Psalm 114 is sung.

Psalm 114: In exitu Israel

WHEN Israel came out of Egypt: * and the house of Jacob from among the strange people,

² Judah was his sanctuary: * and Israel his dominion.

³ The sea saw that, and fled: * Jordan was driven back.

⁴ The mountains skipped like rams: * and the little hills like young sheep.

⁵ What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest: * and thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

⁶ Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams: * and ye little hills, like young sheep?

⁷ Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord: * at the presence of the God of Jacob;

⁸ Who turned the hard rock into a standing water: * and the flint-stone into a springing well.

∇. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Ant. Into Paradise * may the Angels lead thee: at thy coming may the Martyrs receive thee, and lead thee to the holy city Jerusalem. May the choirs of Angels receive thee, and with Lazarus, once a beggar, mayest thou have eternal rest.

At the sepulchre is sung the Versicle:

∇. Alleluia, abide with us today, and tomorrow thou shalt set forth, Alleluia;

R. And when the day shall have risen, thou shalt proceed on thy way, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

The Alleluia is then deposited and covered with a black or purple cloth.

After the ceremonial burial, Psalm 103:13-17 is sung as the procession makes its way back to the sanctuary.

Psalm 103:13-17

¹³ Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children: * even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.

¹⁴ For he knoweth whereof we are made: * he remembereth that we are but dust.

¹⁵ The days of man are but as grass: * for he flourisheth as a flower of the field.

¹⁶ For as soon as the wind goeth over it, it is gone: * and the place thereof shall know it no more.

¹⁷ But the merciful goodness of the Lord endureth for ever and ever upon them that fear him: * and his righteousness upon children's children.

V. Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

R. And let light perpetual shine upon them.

for the conclusion of Evensong: the Prayer of Chrysostom and the Grace.

During the Week of Lent III

During the week, prepare your simnel cake for next week: Lent IV (Mothering Sunday) with:

Roger Starbuck's Simnel Cake Recipe

Ingredients

Cake Mix:

250g butter;
250g margarine/vegetable (or another 250g butter);
2 cups caster sugar;
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind;
1 teaspoon vanilla essence;
8 eggs;
125g mixed peel;
500g sultanas;
500g currants;

4 cups plain flour;
1/2 teaspoon baking powder;
A good pinch of salt.

Almond paste:

2 cups almond meal;
1 1/2 cups caster sugar;
1 egg;
3 teaspoons lemon juice;
Glaze: 1 beaten egg

Method

Almond Paste:

¹ Mix almond meal and sugar together in a bowl;
² Whisk the lemon juice and the egg together and add to the almond meal mixture;

³ Knead the mixture until smooth;
⁴ Wrap the bowl in greaseproof paper and set aside.

Cake:

¹ Grease and line (as necessary) a 22/23cm (9") cake tin;
² Sift flour together with the salt and baking powder;

³ Add the dried fruit and peel to the flour mix;

⁴ In a separate, larger mixing bowl, cream butter + margarine and sugar together thoroughly;

⁵ Beat in the eggs one by one, into the creamed butter and sugar mixture, adding a little flour if they show signs of curdling;

⁶ Mix in the flour and fruit mixture with a wooden spoon or spatula, into the creamed butter and flour mixture (a little milk may be added to this cake batter to give it a dropping consistency);

⁷ Pour half the cake mixture into the cake tin, and smooth it until level;

⁸ Take a third to half of the almond mixture and roll it out to a 1cm thickness over the first layer of the cake mixture;

⁹ Pour the rest of the cake mixture over the almond paste, and level it out gently;

¹⁰ Bake in a slow oven, over 155° - 160° C, for two to three hours, keeping a watchful eye on it. Skewering the batter to test when ready (the skewer should come out clean). When cooked, the top of the cake should feel firm and resilient to the touch. If the top is getting too brown while cooking, cover it with a doubleness of baking paper;

¹¹ Take it out of the oven, and turn it out onto a wire cake rack and let it cool;

¹² With the almond paste make eleven small egg-shaped balls (about hazel nut size) rolling them between the palms of the hands, and two short, thin strips to make the centre cross.

¹³ When the cake is cool, use the rest of the almond paste to cover the top of the cake.

¹⁴ Glaze the top with a beaten egg;

¹⁵ Use some of the beaten egg mixture then to glaze the eggs and cross

¹⁶ Arrange the eleven "eggs" around the edge of the cake on the almond paste layer, then form a cross shape in the middle with the two strips of paste (This represents the eleven faithful apostles surrounding Christ);

¹⁷ Put the cake in a very hot oven at 230° C for 5-8 minutes - or just long enough for the almond eggs and cross to brown lightly.

¹⁸ Remove from the oven and set aside.

¹⁹ Store until you take the cake to Mass for the blessing on Lent IV

The Fourth Sunday of Lent

Also known as Lætare Sunday or Mothering Sunday

The Blessing of Simnel Cake and Flowers

Following the Mass of the Fourth Sunday of Lent, known traditionally as Mothering Sunday, the blessings of Simnel Cake and of flowers may be celebrated according to this formula:

V. Our help + is in the Name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Of Simnel Cake:

O Lord, heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God: vouchsafe to + bless this cake with thy spiritual benediction; that, as thou dost nourish thy people with the finest wheat flour in the blessed sacrament of thy Body and Blood, so all those who partake of this cake may be reminded of the new life to which they are called and the rewards thereof: rejoicing, too, in the love of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of our Lord and God Jesus Christ and our Mother, of Holy Mother Church, and in the nourishment provided us through the love of our own Mothers both living and departed; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth God, world without end. R. Amen.

Of Flowers:

Pour Out thy + blessing, we beseech thee, O Father, on these flowers: that they may be unto us thy servants signs of the love which bind families together, and especially on this day the love of children for their mothers and of mothers for the children thou hast given them: May we all grow in grace and in the love of thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ who hath poured out His love upon us in our common Mother, thy holy Catholic Church; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

The Simnel Cake and flowers are then distributed amongst the Faithful.

The Fifth Sunday of Lent - Passion Sunday

An Office of the Veiling

The Statues and images in the church, but not the Stations of Cross, are veiled in Violet cloth until the Easter Vigil. Before the statues and images are veiled, this short Office may be said by those who engage in the work of veiling them. The Office begins with the Psalm, without introductory verses.

Psalm 42. Quemadmodum.

LIKE as the hart desireth the water-brooks * so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

² My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God * when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

³ My tears have been my meat day and night * while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?

⁴ Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself * for I went with the multitude, and brought them forth into the house of God;

⁵ In the voice of praise and thanksgiving * among such as keep holy-day.

⁶ Why art thou so full of heaviness, O my soul * and why art thou so disquieted within me?

⁷ Put thy trust in God * for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

⁸ My God, my soul is vexed within me * therefore will I remember thee concerning the land of Jordan, and the little hill of Hermon.

⁹ One deep calleth another, because of the noise of the water-pipes * all thy waves and storms are gone over me.

¹⁰ The Lord hath granted his loving-kindness in the day-time * and in the night-season did I sing of him, and made my prayer unto the God of my life.

¹¹ I will say unto the God of my strength, Why hast thou forgotten me * why go I thus heavily, while the enemy oppresseth me?

¹² My bones are smitten asunder as with a sword * while mine enemies that trouble me cast me in the teeth;

¹³ Namely, while they say daily unto me * Where is now thy God?

¹⁴ Why art thou so vexed, O my soul * and why art thou so disquieted within me?

¹⁵ O put thy trust in God * for I will yet thank him, which is the help of my countenance, and my God.

The First Lesson

Exodus 26:31-end

A reading from the Book of Exodus, Chapter Twenty Six, beginning at the Thirty-First Verse.

“And you shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen; in skilled work shall it be made, with cherubim; and you shall hang it upon four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, with hooks of gold, upon four bases of silver. And you shall hang the veil from the clasps, and bring the ark of the covenant in there within the veil; and the veil shall separate for you the holy place from the most holy. You shall put the mercy seat upon the ark of the covenant in the most holy place. And you shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand on south side of the tabernacle opposite the table; and you shall put the table on the north side. And you shall make a screen for the door of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet stuff and fine twined linen, embroidered with needlework. And you shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five bases of bronze for them.

Here endeth the First Lesson.

Canticle

Song of Songs, Chapter 5

I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; * I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

² I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, * Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

³ I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? * I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

⁴ My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, * and my bowels were moved for him.

⁵ I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, * and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: * I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

⁷ The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; * the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

⁸ I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, * that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

⁹ What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? * what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

¹⁰ My beloved is white and ruddy, * the chiefest among ten thousand.

¹¹ His head is as the most fine gold, * his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

¹² His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, * washed with milk, and fitly set.

¹³ His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: * his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

¹⁴ His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: * his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

¹⁵ His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: * his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

¹⁶ His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. * This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

The Second Lesson

John 8:51-end

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John, Chapter Eight, beginning at the Fifty-First Verse.

Jesus said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, if any one keeps my word, he will never taste death." The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, as did the prophets; and you say, 'If any one keeps my word, he will never taste death.' Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you claim to be?" Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing; it is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is your God. But you have not known him; I know him. If I said, I do not know him, I should be a liar like you; but I do know him and I keep his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced that he was to see my day; he saw it and was glad." The Jews then said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?" Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am." So they took up stones to throw at him; but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple.

Here endeth the Second Lesson.

Then is said, in a low voice, Psalm 51 (without Gloria Patri) with its Antiphon:

Ant. Christ the Lord *

Psalm 51. Miserere mei, Deus.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness * according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.

² Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness * and cleanse me from my sin.

³ For I acknowledge my faults * and my sin is ever before me.

⁴ Against thee only have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight * that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou art judged.

⁵ Behold, I was shapen in wickedness * and in sin hath my mother conceived me.

⁶ But lo, thou requirest truth in the inward parts * and shalt make me to understand wisdom secretly.

⁷ Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean * thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

⁸ Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness * that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

⁹ Turn thy face from my sins * and put out all my misdeeds.

¹⁰ Make me a clean heart, O God * and renew a right spirit within me.

¹¹ Cast me not away from thy presence * and take not thy holy Spirit from me.

¹² O give me the comfort of thy help again * and stablish me with thy free Spirit.

¹³ Then shall I teach thy ways unto the wicked * and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

¹⁴ Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God of my health * and my tongue shall sing of thy righteousness.

¹⁵ Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord * and my mouth shall show thy praise.

¹⁶ For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I give it thee * but thou delightest not in burnt-offerings.

¹⁷ The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit * a broken and contrite heart, O God, shalt thou not despise.

¹⁸ O be favourable and gracious unto Sion * build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

¹⁹ Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings and oblations * then shall they offer young bullocks upon thine altar.

Ant. Christ the Lord * became obedient: unto death.

At the Easter Vigil

The Retrieval of the Buried Alleluia

Where the practice of the buried Alleluia is observed.

At the Easter Vigil, the buried Alleluia is uncovered and solemnly brought back to the sanctuary, and the Deacon, Acolyte or Cantor carrying it chants the following to the Celebrant:

V. Reverend Father, I announce unto thee tidings of great joy, the good news of the Alleluia.

The Celebrant, Deacon, or Cantor then presents the Alleluia to the Celebrant to kiss, after which the Celebrant solemnly intones the Alleluia.

On Easter Sunday

The Blessing of Eggs (and Easter Baskets) at Easter

V. Our help + is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Let thy blessing, + Lord, come upon these eggs (and Easter baskets) that they be salutary food for the faithful who eat them in thanksgiving for the Resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, ever one God, world without end.
R. Amen.

Rogationtide

A Suggested Ritual for the Beating of the Bounds

The tradition of processing along the parish boundaries and beating the bounds with willow rods or other wooden canes, marking the corners with the numerals of the year in chalk (A.D. MMXXVI) is an ancient English custom observed during Rogationtide or on Ascension Day. Given that our communities, being personal in nature, rather than geographical as such, do not have definite parish boundaries, it may be more conducive to celebrate this ritual by holding a procession around the church in which we regularly worship, or perhaps the block on which it stands.

The procession forms at the sanctuary with banners, cross, candles, incense and those carrying willow wands.

∇. In the Name of the Father, + and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

R. Amen.

∇. Our help + is in the Name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

(In Rogationtide:)

∇. O give thanks to the Lord, for he is gracious, alleluia.

R. And his mercy endureth for ever, alleluia.

(or, If on or after Ascension Day:)

∇. Christ is gone up with a merry noise, alleluia.

R. And the Lord with the sound of the trump, alleluia.

The hymn, "Father, bear the prayers we offer," is sung. The procession proceeds in a figure eight around the church and then halts at the front doors of the church.

Father, hear the prayers we offer:
Not for ease that prayer shall be,
But for strength that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.

⁴ Be our strength in hours of weakness,
In our wanderings be our guide;
Through endeavour, failure, danger,
Father, be thou at our side. Amen

² Not for ever in green pastures
Do we ask our way to be;
But the steep and rugged pathway
May we tread rejoicingly.

∇. Thou has set the bounds of the earth
R. Thou has made Summer and Winter.

∇. Move not the ancient landmark.
R. Which thy fathers have set.

³ Not for ever by still waters
Would we idly rest and stay;
But would smite the living fountains
From the rocks along our way.

∇. Let us proceed to mark the bounds in peace.
R. In the + Name of Christ. Amen.

The Litany is then said, or sung [DOCE:343-349], while the procession moves off. This recitation is interrupted each time the procession arrives at the predetermined corners of the parish, the church, or other significant landmarks along the way. At these, the Officiant, calls out, "Mark, mark, mark!" The people then beat the bounds with their canes, and the Officiant inscribes the numerals of the year in the left-over, blessed chalk from the Epiphanytide house blessing. The inscription can be just the year, or more elaborately, the initials of the Parish (Group), the Ordinariate, and the year.

P. of St. N.
O.L.S.C.
(or, P. of Ss N. & N.)
A.D. MMXXVI

The recitation of the Litany resumes after each marking. Other hymns, chants and songs may be substituted for the Litany, once the Litany has ended.

The Ritual concludes with the singing of the Solemn Te Deum of Thanksgiving [DWM:1071-1072 or using the translation of the Te Deum in DWDO], ending with the Collect of the Vigil of the Ascension, or of the Ascension, of Rogationtide, or of the Day of the Dedication of a Church, and followed by the Regina Cæli.

Doctors of the Church

An alternate Office Hymn for both male and female Doctors of the Church

Common of Doctors of the Church

At Mattins: Invitatory Ant.

The Lord, the King of Doctors: * O come let us worship him.

At Mattins: Office Hymn — Vox succensa Deo (This hymn may be used for any Doctor.)

O Doctors, Godlit stars
Which set the heav'ns ashine,
Ye are the salt of earth,
Of savour right divine,
To season souls of men,
Lest they corrupted be,
And never know integrity.

² By you the truth preserv'd
From error still remains,
And so the virgin Faith
Its purity retains;
By you the Lord delights
His treasures to unfold,
And so his wisdom still is told.

³ Like limpid streams, where flow
The living waters clear,
Christ's fields ye well bedew,
That increase may appear;
Ye furnish milk for babes,
For men more solid meat,
The diverse needs of souls ye treat.

⁴ O Christ, eternal Truth,
In thee do we rejoice,
Though now our outward ears
May not perceive thy voice;
Still in thy Doctors' speech
Thy teaching we discern,
And thus of thee our spirits learn. Amen.

V. The Lord guided the righteous in the right paths.

R. And shewèd him the kingdom of God.

At Evensong: Office Hymn — O qui perpetuus nos (This hymn may be used for any Doctor.)

O Christ, the Father's voice
And His eternal Word,
What Thou wouldst still declare
Must needs on earth be heard
And though we see Thee not,
We yet may hear Thy speech,
For with Thy voice Thy Doctors teach.

² On Sion's tow'rs they watch,
Lest heresy draw near
To breach its walls of Faith
And bring corruption drear;
With guardians like these
The Church abides secure,
For thus forewarn'd she can endure.

³ O Christ, eternal Truth,
In Thee do we rejoice,
Though now our outward ears
May not perceive Thy voice;
Still in Thy Doctors' speech
Thy teaching we discern,
And thus of Thee our spirits learn. Amen.

V. The Lord guided the righteous in the right paths.
R. And shewèd him the kingdom of God.
